Mayor Of Dover, England Visits Dover, N.J. HISTORIC VISIT BY THE MAYOR JAN KENTOR

DOVER-No one could have ordered a better day than Saturday, September 9, 2006. The temperature was just right, around 80 degrees and a cool breeze along with the shade of the trees in front of town hall, set a perfect setting for such a historic event that was about to take place. This special edition of Ye Old Tye News takes a special look at this event as witnessed by the hundreds of people who attended and the thousands of photos that were taken. Our own historical society's photographer Rick Kelly was able to snap hundreds of photos from start to finish which are presented in this edition. We know many of our society members live out-of-town and out-of-state and were not able to attend. We hope this newsletter will bring you a little closer to a day that made Dover proud. Proud of its heritage and its people. Proud of Dover's present and its future. One only has to live in Dover or had lived in Dover, gone to Dover's schools, attended Dover's churches and shopped in Dover's downtown to truly realize what a great community Dover really is.

Bob Wagner “Dover Dogs A Symbol Of Our Strength”

DOVER-Bob Wagner once again came to the plate and this time hit a grand slam home run. The refurbisher of the Doug Boy Statue at Hurd Park, the restorator of the church statues at Sacred heart Church and the renorvator of the Dover Museum House at 55 W. Blackwell Street, Bob Wagner was once again called upon for his talents and services to do the impossible. Mayor Jame Dodd asked Bob to repair this historic 1869 “Dover Dogs” that were severely damaged by vandals. To everyone’s amazment and delight, Bob pulled through and not only repaired the dogs, but reinvforced their contants to make then better and stronger than ever. Bobs efforts were recognized at the redidication cermony and on three occasion were given a rousing round of applause, one of them being a standing ovation. Bob said the dogs are a symbol of our strength here in Dover” and will continue to look out over the town, prouder than ever.

“Dogs of Dover” Chairman Robin Foster Welcomes

“When Mayor Dodd appointed a committee to plan the repair and restoration of our legendary dogs, I eagerly volunteered to serve and chair the efforts. The logical choice to act as Secretary and Treasurer was my wife Connie. The services of Alderman and native son, Frank Poolas were enlisted. Alderman Jack Delaney contributed a wealth of ideas. At Frank’s suggestion, Mike Picciallo joined, bringing his record of successful fundraising efforts. Of course, most critical to the success of the project was finding the right person for the physical job of restoration. Dover’s own Bob

Wagner, a frequent volunteer and supporter of many civic causes, painstakingly applied his incomparable skills and produced the impeccable work before us. Thanks, Bob, for a job well done! I would like to thank all the individuals and businesses of Dover who contributed their labors

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.
